

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The citizens of the State of South Dakota are becoming increasingly aware of the importance of the Arts in the intellectual growth of all children; and,

WHEREAS, Training and experiences in the visual arts are important for intellectual development, social maturation, aesthetic appreciation and have a positive effect on a child's self esteem; and,

WHEREAS, The South Dakota Art Education Association in cooperation with many state and local organizations is sponsoring the Second Annual Young Artists' Exhibit in the State Capitol, February 28 through March 6, 1982; and,

WHEREAS, This exhibit will focus the attention of the state on the importance of the Arts in the lives of all South Dakota children:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the month of March, 1982, as in South Dakota, and do hereby give our support of this state-wide project in the hope that it will enhance a better understanding of the importance of the Arts in the lives of our children.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Two
